Message from the Board President

Year 2010 presented us with challenges that we have been able to step up to. This has put us in an even better position to meet future ones, as our building ages.

This year our membership will see more value for their money though our upcoming bulk maintenance contract with Total; this will hopefully help us eliminate the dreaded water leaks. Looking forward to a great New Year for all of us!

Allen Roffman, Board President

Some Monthly Reminders For all Residents and their Guests

Please pull all the way forward in the first lane at our front door when dropping off, picking someone up or unloading items. This is an emergency lane and must be kept clear at all times.

Remind all visitors that a parking permit must be obtained at the Security Desk before parking in guest parking. With all our residents in full force, spaces are limited and we must be able to identify all vehicles. Any vehicle with no parking permit or parking sticker (for residents) will be towed, regardless of where it is parked.

Our lobby has been updated recently and we would like to keep it fresh and clean. Please be sure the children do not put their feet on the sofas and all diapers must be changed in the restrooms located on the first floor.

Our annual election for Board Members is coming up and we strongly encourage every unit owner TO VOTE.. Please remind your neighbors and out of towners to vote as well. It's important to support the condominium and be knowledgeable about who is on your Board of Directors.

Please use your key FOB at all times when entering the building. This system was set up for YOUR SECURITY and to ensure that only residents enter the building. The Security Guards have been instructed to open the doors only for residents who are handicapped or using the luggage carts. Your cooperation is really appreciated. If you have misplaced your FOB, please go to the office to purchase a new one.

Wishing everyone a Happy and Healthy New Year. Be kind to yourself and your neighbors and let's enjoy our life here at Flamenco Condominium.

Karen Paige, Board Treasurer

Flamenco Couple Celebrate 70th Anniversary

Ex Chicago society band leader/music store operator Sid Sherman and his wife Cecil "Sissy" celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary Xmas day. On December 25th, 1940 after a three month whirlwind courtship Sid married Cecil "Sissy" Herzog in her hometown Joliet Illinois (40 miles southwest of Chicago on Route (remember?) 66.

Why Christmas day? Because for musicians, that's the dearest day of the year. As luck would have it, their honeymoon was cut short by an engagement for New Years Eve which he couldn't refuse; they needed money for a nest egg and were starting from scratch. The Shermans moved to Aventura in 1972 when Sid embarked on a "post retirement" career as business manager and newsletter editor for Associated Swimming Pool Industries of Florida. He continued with them for 20 years during which time he also volunteered producing Talking Books for the Blind and teaching for The Library of Congress. Sissy continued with her charitable work that she had begun in Chicago.

They have two sons, Craig and Kim Douglas both of whom have successful law firms in Fort Lauderdale. Craig has been city attorney for Bay Harbor Islands for the past 34 years. Kim came to Florida as City Attorney for Fort Lauderdale where he also taught law classes for the police force before going into private practice.

Sis and Sid have 3 grandchildren: Drew, a successful local attorney, Dr. Seth, a psychiatrist for Harvard hospitals and Roy, a local paramedic. The Shermans also boast of two great-grandchildren, Grey and Samantha, who live in Boca Raton with their dad, Drew, and mother, Michelle who is an executive with Hill Holliday advertising agency. During an interview a reporter facetiously asked: "Hmm. 70 years married. Have you ever considered divorce?" To which Sis laughingly replied, "Murder, many times but divorce—never!"

Language

Let's face it - English is a crazy language. There is no egg in eggplant, nor ham in hamburger; neither apple nor pine in pineapple. English muffins weren't invented in England or French fries in France. Sweetmeats are candies while sweetbreads, which aren't sweet, are meat. We take English for granted. But if we explore it's paradoxes, we find that quicksand can work slowly, boxing rings are square, and a guinea pig is neither from Guinea nor is it a pig.

And why is it that writers write, but fingers don't fing, grocers don't groce and hammers don't ham? If the plural of tooth is teeth, why isn't the plural of booth, beeth? One goose, 2 geese. So one moose, 2 meese? One index, 2 indices? Doesn't it seem crazy that you can make amends but not one amend? If you have a bunch of odds and ends and get rid of all but one of them, what do you call it?

If teachers taught, why didn't preachers praught? If a vegetarian eats vegetables, what does a humanitarian eat? Sometimes I think all the English speakers should be committed to an asylum for the verbally insane. In what language do people recite at a play and play at a recital? Ship by truck and send cargo by ship? Have noses that run and feet that smell?

How can a slim chance and a fat chance be the same, while a wise man and a wise guy are opposites? You have to marvel at the unique lunacy of a language in which your house can burn up as it burns down, in which you fill in a form by filling it out and in which, an alarm goes off by going on. English was invented by people, not computers and it reflects the creativity of the human race, which, of course, is not a race at all. That is why when the stars are out they are visible but when the lights are out they are invisible.

PS. - Why doesn't 'Buick' rhyme with 'quick'? You think English is easy???

Flamenco Red Hat Society

While Strolling down Las Olas Boulevard a few years ago, I passed a store exhibiting unusual books and objects in their windows. Upon entering same, I spied what appeared to be a “raggedy Ann doll”. However, on closer examination, I discovered the doll depicting an older woman dressed in purple clothing with a red hat atop her graying hair. Attached to this rather unusual doll was the following poem:

Warning – When I Am an Old Woman I Shall Wear Purple -Excerpt from the book by Jenny Joseph

When I am an old woman, I shall wear purple
With a red hat that doesn't go, and doesn't suit me.
And I shall spend my pension on brandy and summer gloves
And satin candle, and say we've no money for butter.
I shall sit down on the pavement when I am tired and gobble up samples in shops and press alarm bells and run my stick along the public railings and make up for the sobriety of my youth.
I shall go out in my slippers in the rain
And pick flowers in other people's gardens
And learn to spit.

You can wear terrible shirts and grow more fat
And eat three pounds of sausages at a go
Or only bread and pickles for a week
And hoard pens and pencils and beer nuts and things in boxes.

But now we must have clothes that keep us dry
And pay our rent and not swear in the street
And set a good example for the children.
We must have friends to dinner and read the papers.
But maybe I ought to practice a little now?
So people who know me are not too shocked and surprised
When suddenly I am old, and start to wear purple.

As a result of a few women reading Jenny Joseph's poem, they decided to greet middle age with nerve, humor, and élan. They believe silliness is the comedy relief of life, and “since we are all in it together, we might as well join red-gloved hands and go for the gusto together.” Underneath the frivolity, they share a bond of affection, forged by common life experiences and a genuine enthusiasm for whatever life takes them next. They donned red hats which didn't go particularly well with their purple dresses and gathered at the local restaurants to enjoy each other's company and have an enjoyable evening, and this is how The Red Hat Society was formed!

Soon, each of them thought of another woman or two she wanted to include in the group, and they bought more red hats. Their group swelled to 18 and they began to encourage other interested people to start their own chapters (18 women don't fit well around a luncheon or dinner table). One of their members passed along the idea to a friend of hers in Florida, and their first “sibling” group was born.

Just to give you an idea of how these societies proliferate far and wide, The Red Hat Society holds conventions with entire hotels filled with women of a certain age wearing red hats and purple outfits!

Well, it just so happens that I have a purple outfit.....all I need is a stunning red hat! Just imagine a group of “a certain age” appropriately attired in purple and red descending upon our newly appointed lobby, prepared to go forth and enjoy an evening of camaraderie at any of the local restaurants! Wouldn't that make for a “head turner”? I can just see the headlines now in the “Aventura News”!

Anyone interested in forming a Red Hat Society Flamenco Chapter?

(P.S. I purchased the doll referred to in my story because the words touched me in some way! It now sits on my bed and every now and then I get such a yearning to wear a “red hat and purple dress”..... (perhaps sparking an independent spirit!)

Subject: Womanly Truisms

- Blessed are those who hunger and thirst, for they are sticking to their diets.
- Life is an endless struggle full of frustrations and challenges, but eventually you find a hairstylist that you like.
- Perhaps you know why women over fifty don't have babies: They would put them down somewhere and forget where they left them.
- One of the life's mysteries is how a two pound box of candy can make a woman gain five pounds.
- I finally got my head together, and my body fell apart.
- The real art of conversation is not only to say the right thing in the right place, but also to leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment.
- Time may be a great healer, but it's also a lousy beautician.
- Brain cells come and brain cells go, but fat cells live forever.
- Life not only begins at forty, it begins to show.
- Just when I was getting used to yesterday, along came today.
- If at first you don't succeed, see if the loser gets anything.
- You don't stop laughing because you grow old, you grow old because you stop laughing.
- I had to give up jogging for my health. My thighs kept rubbing together and setting my pantyhose on fire.
- Amazing! You just hang something in your closet for a - while, and it shrinks two sizes.

- It is bad to suppress laughter; it goes back down and spreads to your hips.
- Age is important only if you're cheese or wine.
- The only time a woman wishes she were a year older is when she is expecting a baby.
- Freedom of the press means no-iron clothes.
- Inside some of us is a thin person struggling to get out, but she can usually be sedated with a few pieces of chocolate cake.
